Activities in 2009

In 2009, RSS has organized ICIRA2009 conference in Singapore between 16 and 18 December 2009 (Orchard Hotel). It has attracted over 100 scientists and researchers with the research interests in intelligent robotics and applications.

In parallel, RSS has been actively involved in the formation of another bigger association which is Singapore-China Association for Advancement of Science and Technology (SCAAST). SCAAST has the support from both countries of Singapore and China. Hence, RSS can leverage on SCAAST's influence to grow robotics-related activities in future.

In addition, we have organized a few talks at Nanyang Technological University, Singapore.
